

TRUE HEART CONNECTION
Let horses guide you in exploring your relational path
6-day retreat South of France | 17 -24 May 2019

...CONTINUATION OF PART I

Marie Anna Winter

I am a passionate explorer of life as a path of evolution, self-awareness and growth. My life unfolds around a deep love for, and service to, all that is alive.

My path with horses has been a quest for truth; what does it mean to truly connect and communicate? I' ve been inspired and trained by beautiful teachers, that taught me the 'language of the horse' as well as following my intuition and developing the language of my heart.

I have a deep curiosity towards relating; what do we human beings have to learn in order to live in a truly truthful and loving way? What does nature show us about this?

I have a professional background in holistic therapy and coaching, equine assisted therapy and social work. I am trained in various therapeutic and tantric modalities which I use to create containers for deep transformation and activation of soul purpose.

My heart guided me to the Big Island of Hawaii, land of my soul, where me and my partner founded Iokai; institute for evolutionary intimacy.

PRACTICAL DETAILS

Dates

May 17th - May 24th 2019

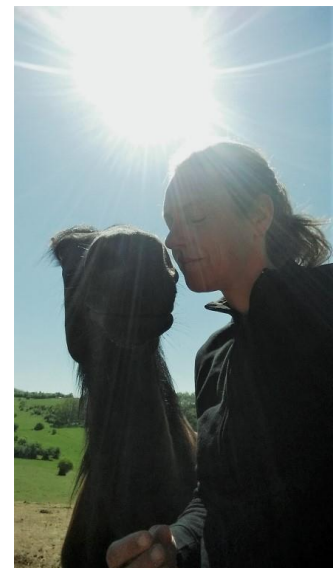

On May 17th we will start with a dinner, followed by an openings ritual. We will end our program on Thursday night, and will provide breakfast on Friday morning the 24th.

Location

Saint-Ybars, Southern France.

How to get there

There are several ways to get to Toulouse (train, bus, airplane), the nearest big city. We provide a shuttle from Toulouse airport. We will share email addresses for people who like to come by car together.
